In order for a student/child to be considered for enrollment at iBelieve Christian Academy (IBCA), the parent/guardian of the student/child must agree to cooperate with the faculty and staff regarding the discipline of the student/child at IBCA; furthermore, full cooperation is expected from both the student/child and parents in the educational process of the student/child.

IBCA reserves the right at any time and at the discretion of the administration to dismiss a student/child from IBCA if issues such as but not limited to student/child's behavior or attitude issues; parent's behavior or attitude issues; issues of either a student or parent that indicates an uncooperative spirit or is out of harmony with the spirit and standards of IBCA. The dismissal does not necessarily have to be based upon a definite breach of conduct but may be based upon issues as stated above but not specifically limited to those listed. Additionally, it is pertinent to understand that a parent's behavior may also result in a student/child's dismissal as well.
